Role: Graduate/Junior Lawyer
Location: x2 positions 1 in Sydney and 1 in Melbourne

ABOUT THE ROLE

We are currently looking to recruit a talented Graduate/Junior Lawyer to join our Class Actions practice in Sydney and Melbourne. This role would be ideal for someone who is in the penultimate year of their law degree or has recently graduated.

THE ROLE

As a Graduate/Junior Lawyer you will:

- Prepare briefs, carry out research tasks, assist with discovery processes on large scale litigation
- Assist with drafting all types of documents and letters one would expect to see in a litigated matter
- Be part of a friendly team, learning from senior practitioners who are industry recognised experts in their fields who will coach and guide you and provide you with invaluable opportunities while you complete your degree/PLT

William Roberts takes pride in mentoring and fostering our Graduates/Junior Lawyers, this role may also provide the opportunity to transition to a permanent Lawyer role.

THE CANDIDATE

- A recent law graduate or law student in their penultimate year of their degree
- A strong commitment to ongoing professional growth and development
- Passionate and interested in gaining solid experience in commercial litigation
- Driven and enjoys challenging personal boundaries to achieve quality results
- Strong attention to detail with the ability to follow instructions and procedures
- Organised and possess the ability to multitask while meeting deadlines
- Ability to quickly build relationships and work effectively in a team
- Takes pride in their work, notwithstanding they may be studying at the same time as working

APPLICATION

Please submit your cover letter, CV, and academic transcript for all legal related studies when applying.
